BROAD STREET STATION,
Philadelphia.
December 18, 1916.

My dear Lloyd:

I am just in receipt of your letter of the 25th ultimo, enclosing check to my order for $400., in repayment of the loan made you December 18th, 1911.

I trust that it was entirely convenient for you to repay this loan at this time.

I hope that your work in Dutch Guiana is proving both interesting and profitable to you. I had no idea that it would consume so much time.

Thanking you for your kind wishes, which I fully reciprocate, I am,

Very truly yours,

Francis J. Gorman
