

I may get some more mail from you in Berlin Especially if you sent it to the Cyanide Co. office

When I get back to London I will try to get a cheap room some where that I can keep as head quarters. It looks as if I would be in the continent a great deal this summer.

Prices in Germany certainly have gone up + I think they are higher if any thing than in the States.

Did you find my war medal when you packed up I am sure it was in the middle desk drawer some time back when I took out that other medal the papers were all messed up as if some one had been rooting in there.

Tell Sprokie I am sure the Mounties come from the county as
