

real estate of Edward J. Bourke and runs with said fifth line South forty-eight degrees thirty minutes East one Hundred and fifty-nine perches and three tenths of a perch to the end thereof.

Thence South eighty degrees, East one hundred and three perches and three tenths of a perch to the public Road and thence North sixty-one degrees West two hundred and fifty-three perches and two tenths of a perch to the beginning, containing twenty-six acres three rods and nineteen perches of land, also all that tract of Wood land being part of the tract called "Lloyd's Meadows" and "Lloyd's Meadows Addition" and beginning at the end of the tenth line of the aforesaid tract called "Carpenter's Square" a stone being at said beginning, and runs thence South eighty degrees, East sixty three perches and seven twentieths of a perch thence South forty five degrees West thirty five perches, thence South twenty-four degrees East five perches and four tenths of a perch, thence South sixty five degrees, West seven perches and one fourth perch, thence North eighty degrees, West sixty five perches and three fourths of a perch, thence North forty three degrees thirty minutes East forty four perches and a half perch to the beginning