

of his breeding he is still true in the County. his sire came from one of the adjoining Counties and all I know is they say he is a Hauberksonian, so it is hard to trace her pedigree.

Who owns Maud C. now and what is she doing, can she go any faster or not? she was a right good colt, and Capt. Cannon is anxious to hear how she has panned out.

I have the mare which I got from Paymaster Pitchard the one Frank Starr had training for him to Gentlemen's driving park. she comes go in 2,40 she is by Tankerville and had she been in condition when Starr had her would have easily gone in 30, - I bred her last spring of 1891 - and now she has a fine mare colt - 13 days old. by E. B. Emory Nappy Russell and I think a good deal of it the Mare Gertie &