

—♦♦♦ OFFICE OF ♦♦♦—

W. W. Harrington & Bro.,

—DEALERS IN—

BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, NOTIONS, DRY GOODS AND GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

~~~~~OYSTERMEN'S SUPPLIES.~~~~~

Madison, Md.,

189

which is the dam of The Russell colt - is of the same stock as Lady Harrington was on her dam's side, and her Sire was Tankerville, I intend next spring to Breed her to Claude Wickes of Easton Md, he is by Red Wickes, unless I send her East to Nappy Russell.
 It has good breeding "The Coet" Though the mare has a record no better than 2,4<sup>3</sup> in that race she won and could easily have gone out in 38 or 9, what has Chelmsworth
 I would like to have attended Brink's races, but could not, if you ever get up with Frank Starr ask him what is the best time he ever drove the mare in he had of Plymouth