Sir

Your letter at hand, I told the Man w- James Tholeford Wood dealer. She never had a cough while I owned her, and I am quite sure the change from her to the City is the prime cause of same - as I have known it often to be so. on such a change, I used her to Livery and my top buggy nothing else!
She was never sick while I owned her, and I raised her from the day she was born, unless the Man has been badly treated since she left her I think her all right - I feel sure the cough without it is a contagious disease will
