Mr E B Emory.

Dear Sir

Your kind letter to hand and in reply I can only say that. I only want a Job that you think I can give you satisfaction in as I said before I see nothing to do, and I had better do something than nothing. and of course I cant expect much more than any other man that can do the same work. I will try to come down to see you before the first of April and should you need me ask
