her Dam was out of an old Kentucky pacer, we owned, a racker from way back — and a pacer and a good one after she started. Sire of her dam was the old St Lawrence messenger brought here by Mr Shaw from Kentucky state, guess you know of him & the horse, so I think her pair stride, she is considerable about the best mare in the County outside Pinkney maid. I dont want her to fall off in flesh, dont want her used, nice take her shoes off before leaving here, She has had one colt & is right sure I think hope you will try her often and fix her off as soon as possible as he my brother has no other horse & need her, you had better keep her in stable until you hear from me again as it is to cool to turn out. I tried to get you some more here but have failed, possibly from this fact — a young man from this county went to
