Manufacturer of Tin Cans and Packer of Fruits and Vegetables.

Marydel, Md.

E. B. Emory Esq.

Dear Sir

If you think in the Spring, sound enough to develop speed and go out and win some money this year, I will keep him out of the Stud and make you the following proposition. You keep, train, handle in your own way and enter where you please, all at your expense, and you receive and keep all money you win with him. I agreeing not to take him out of your hands until, say Nov 1st unless I should sell the colt in which event you give him up at any time, on my paying you 10 per Cent of the amount I sell him for and also pay you any entrance money you may have had paid for races not yet started, and also if I should sell the colt early in the season before you
