EDWIN H. BROWN, JR.
ATTORNEY AT LAW
CENTREVILLE, MARYLAND.

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE.

August 21st. 1905.

My dear Mrs. Emory;-

I received your letter some days ago and am very much obliged to you for the address. I am going to send to this party one day this week and hope to be able to get some information that will be of service to us. I will at once prepare the papers and I hope in a short time to have matters moving so as to close them out in a very short time: I wish you would as you may think of it, write me any information that you think will be of service to me in this matter.

I am more than delighted to know that Etta is not any worse than the Doctor says, and I am sure that the trip to either place will be of great benefit to her.

Sam has shipped a few peaches and I am getting the returns. They do not amount to very much but just as soon as I get all I will make you out a statement and send you check.

With kindest regards, and awaiting your future wishes, I am,

Very truly yours

Edwin H. Brown, Jr.
