

EDWIN H. BROWN, JR.
ATTORNEY AT LAW
CENTREVILLE, MARYLAND.

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE.

November 10th. 1905.

Mrs. Henrietta T. Emory,
Philadelphia, Penn.

My Dear Mrs. Emory:-

Please pardon my not acknowledging the receipt of the bill properly signed and acknowledged, before, but as you know it came on Saturday and every I have been busy in Court.

I filed the bill and have also had a talk with Mr. Emory. He is not going to make any fight, but is going to admit what we have charged him with. He said he was going to make every effort possible to have ~~xx~~ leave the farm by the first of January. He then asked me about transferring to him the personal property. I told him that we could not do this unless he left the place. He has employed counsel in this matter, and it is understood between him, and Mr. Emory and myself that if Mr. Emory leaves the farm by the first of January 1906 that we will give him the personal property. I think that this is a very good arrangement.

I am going to force the divorce proceedings as fast as I can, and at this time I do not think that it will be necessary for you to come to Centreville and testify. I will keep you posted.

With kindest regards, I am

Very Sincerely Yours,

Dic. EHBjr/McF.
