Harrington, Del. 7. 6. 91

Dear Mr. Emory:

My only excuse for intruding upon your time and patience is that I am trying to care for the interests of a friend. There is a man living at Cannon, Sussex Co. Del. by the name of James Lane (he is a better striped exceedingly than some living in Queen Anne's by that name) who is quite anxious to secure the management of a good farm. He was my neighbor for twelve months and it affords me great pleasure to say that he is industrious, well-informed and honest in every sense of the word. He is about forty years of age and has quite a large & interesting family. I wish to learn whether or not you have a farm upon which you
