

Mr. Edward B. Emar
Centerville,
Maryland.

Henderson Md.
April 22, 1891.

Dear Sir:-

The day you was to see me, I said my mare would come in, in July, as she took the time the 23rd of July, I have noticed her this week, and she is making considerable bog, she must have caught on the ninth day.

I will not make any contract that I can't stick to, I don't want to promise to pay you $100. and not see where the money is to come from. I will breed
