Mr. E. B. Emory:

Dear Sir,

Your receipt
I was down to Centerville work before last and I wanted to see you, but it was impossible for me to get down ~~there~~ <sup>to your place</sup>, this bill which you sent me for keeping my mare, I think you have left one item off, and made a charge of an item which you did not intend to do. or at least you told me the first time I was down there last summer to send my mare down, to breed back to Happy Russell, that she should not cost me anything, as long as she was on grass, but as soon as you would have to feed
