

future I expect to run a "Russell coll." but as I shall leave at this time I cannot indulge myself. I called to see Dr. Finney yesterday to find out whether he was going to attend your sale but did not find him at home. I hope the sale will be a success, and that you will realize what the colls are worth. Any time you come to the city drop in to see me, we'll always be glad to see you.
Again thanking you for your kindness

I am ever truly yours
Jesse W. Singmaster

Kindest regards to Mrs Emory
