

man got in Turner's hands he will give more reputation than any other man could have done and hope the Lady will turn out with the same results Certainly this is money to me but eventually Emory will do as well as any other party interested.

I hope Mrs E. feels satisfied and she will see things in the light I do I know by this time you feel you have pursued the proper course and the money will be able to save what you desire of the property of Sale and by this time every thing is settled to your satisfaction.

Let me hear from you as to what
