
spend money on them
these hard times —
Or if you could buy her at $25 — pasture
without regularly training her I should think that but you can do whichever suits you best —
The flies have never been worse with us, and I would not want her on pasture this month
I am obliged for your offer to keep the colt more free of charge, and appreciate it
I will try and get down again when I have more time — I think the dark chestnut filly
a very fine individual as well as richly bred What a pity Rysdyk
did not have more of that class of mares —
What do you ask for