

and Rachel was foaled the same spring that he bought her mother.
Rachel was a good mare kind and gentle in all hominess. And has trotted in 250 without training, my colt is a good one and promises to be smart. had I had her handled by some good driver.
The mare does not belong to my wife. she is mine, and there is nothing against her.
I had written you before I rec'd your letter. I do hope you will sell my mare for me. but I do not care to sell her for less than $500.⁰⁰ which I hope you can do for me. If I was down home I would take my mare to Balto.
and offer her, but I have no one to attend to her for me, I hope you can find a purchaser