Mr Edward B Emory

Dear Sir; I write to you in reference to the slave matter. It is not only important that we should receive a payment, but I am compelled back that the confessed judgment be given. I don't ask this with a view of pushing same, for it is not my purpose to do so, unless compelled, but I want it as additional protection.
If it is your purpose not to do so, then there is nothing left, except a suit. I think the judgment by confession the best.

Yours truly
Edwin A Brown
