Dear Sir & Friend

The box

of peaches arrived in good condition on Saturday. We enjoyed them greatly and appreciate highly the kindly sentiments that prompted you to send them. They were the finest I have seen this season. I think that yours should be a pleasant life. It must be a pleasure to raise fine horses - fine fruit & the fine boy who spent an evening with us. We were much pleased with him, & hope to have him pay us a visit whenever he can.

It has been fearfully warm here for the last week. I do not know that I have ever felt
