

vigorously. Will endeavor to get you the money instead of the colt, but if the latter, Kindly advise me what you wish done with the animal. Send your reply to my Norfolk address.
Although I wrote Lind, saying I should bring suit, I have did so, because he has a number of unsatisfied judgments against him and I saw little prospect of making the money out of him immediately. I still have the check for $1.50 you sent me for costs, in my desk and