

I am sorry I sent Crator to you as ~~it has piled up under~~ the circumstances as he has been an expense and trouble to you, but I thought he would be sold long before this and expenses stopped, of course I am very much pleased with the great improvement you have made in him, both in condition and speed and I feel distressed that I can not pay you promptly. One had be sturd his trip so nicely and his speed is still improving. Don't you think it would be good plan to put him and some of your colts in city auction sale, or would that cost too much. I presume it is too late to think of
