

stuck just outside of an gate the other day. & it turned till late at night. I have not heard from Mammie since the Winter - I suppose her time is all taken up with her little family.
I suppose you are all feasting on peaches - I see by the papers they are very plentiful in Pennsylvania. We have had them only once this season & then in June brought a few in Winchester! This is not a peach country.
Did Mrs Emory ever receive my last two letters. Tell her I think she might answer them. With a
