Mr. Edward B. Emory,
Dear Sir:

Mr. F. H. Steumer
is quite a friend of mine, and is also quite a friend of yours, and being a little behind with you, he wants me to buy his home ("Victor Russell") and get out of the scrape.

I am told that he can't stand his heels and has no legs under him.

I am an admirer of your handling & knowledge of horses, and would like to ask you the bare question: what is "Victor Russell" worth these times?

If next Sunday is not too cold, Mr. J. A. Morgan
