Mr Edw. B. Emory —
Dear Sir —

Both of your letters in reference to breeding mares were received.

I am very much surprised at your demand for service fee now as I positively told Mr Saxton and your driver also, that I would not breed by springing chances at that late date, but would pay you twenty dollars to insure the mares with foals. Under those conditions Mr Saxton had your man stop here and I told him the
