

By submitting to us questions upon which they desire information, they receive the benefit of our individual outlay and a correct answer in the issue of THE HORSEMAN next following the day on which their queries are received.

THE HORSEMAN'S ILLUSTRATIONS

are conceded to be unequaled. The first page bears each week the portrait of some famous performer, truthfully delineated and the news columns are plentifully illustrated with half-tone engravings of star-campaigners, prominent owners, track-officials, famous localities and other subjects of general interest. Pictures often tell a story better than words.

AS AN ADVERTISING MEDIUM

THE HORSEMAN has no peer, let alone superior. It reaches all the leading owners, breeders and dealers; is on the tables of all the best clubs and hotels; is sold on nearly every news-stand in the United States; goes abroad to Europe, Asia, Australia, China, Japan, Africa and Hawaii, in fact reaches the class that buys and has money to pay for what it buys. THE HORSEMAN'S readers are not traders. At a very conservative estimate THE HORSEMAN is read by 70,000 persons every week.

THE SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

is three dollars ($3.00) per annum; $2.00 per half year and $1.00 per three months—subscriptions payable invariably in advance. Liberal discounts to agents.
