

26
JAN
1855
TRANS

sometimes impaired so that he would be impotent at intervals.
I made the suggestion I did not for the purpose of eliciting a discussion of the points of law involved but simply for ^{what} would seem to be our mutual benefit. To my mind law is one thing & equity something different and when I started out to get a Happy Russell colt I certainly never felt that in dealing with you I would be tracing up any money on the principle that "Heads you win" & "Tails I lose". I only ~~felt~~ ^{felt} that you might share my suspicion of there being something wrong after nearly six months of careful trials & breeding. Kindly let me know the result of your trial since her last service on Oct 4th ^{Yours respectfully} J. Q. Adams.