Dear Sir

Your prompt reply was received and also your letter of Friday, for which I thank you. I bought the mare that I sold to your horse at a great price when she was not quite six years old. When I got her or while I drove her I never had a man to pass me on the road. And even after she was with foal after your gentle her home, I drove her with a horse that had just won in a race time 2⁴⁰ and just off the grass heavy with foal she came out with him then two days before the race. I had great hope of her before she was injured, per-
