Dear Sir
My congratulations you on being so fortunate in being able to obtain Happy Russell at your place. Had you put up with him or think you would have had great difficulty in getting a stallion to take his place and it would have no doubt have been a serious loss set to your stud. However we suppose that you are now well provided for for the future as regards stallions.
Your filly is certainly well and is doing well; has developed considerably since she came to our place.
We have not altogether completed our arrangements for the coming year, and have not fully decided about 'Mozelle' but think it most likely that we will
