

important and successful sale ever held. I shall restrict the number to just what can be advantageously handled in the time, and shall, without exception, catalogue all consignments in the order received, and sell according to catalogue number. THIS SALE WILL BE ADVERTISED EXTENSIVELY, NOT ONLY IN THIS COUNTRY, BUT IN EUROPE AND SOUTH AMERICA, SO AS TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE PRESENT TROTting BOOM IN THOSE COUNTRIES.

Respectfully,

WM. B. FASIG.

N. B.—Please do not write to me asking what I think your horse will sell for at the sale. It is impossible to appraise a horse's value without seeing him. I don't know what a horse "will bring." I do know that a good horse will bring a good price—ALL HE IS WORTH.

Do not ask for special conditions or concessions.
