My dear Sir

Not being in my power to have home on account a some cases of confinement which I did hope to escape, I have sent my mares and presume they will reach your place by Wednesday at noon. I was more than anxious to go with them myself in order that I might have the pleasure of looking over your stock, and to explain to you about my mares. Well, there breeding is unquestionable, although, Valley green has a bunch from the aspect of a curb. She sprang the curb when only two years old from
