

Bittles & Henderson,
Colonnade Livery and Boarding Stables, Nos. 1818 and 1820 Market Street.

Philadelphia, /2/30 1891

Mr. Emory

Dear Sir
This morning I noticed a letter from you in reference to money for use of your horses. Mr. Bittles wrote you what we would do in the matter but you decline to accept why you do this I can't understand unless you think that we are dishonest - or that we do not know how to do business. Now Remember I am writing this on my own account I myself do not want any business with you for you are not the kind of a man I would trust