

This season, I have been knocked out some on my other mare; next to the last trip Russell tried her and found her in season, but as the horse was worked full up here and had to be home in order to serve some mares there I accommodated Chance (or for through him) by passing the mare, on his promise to be back on the next Saturday & serve her; the mare was still in season on Saturday but Chance did not get here until Sunday night, and the mare had gone out by Monday A.M. on return from Dover we tried her again but she was still out or has changed her mind about breeding, so you see I have
