

OFFICE OF

J. H. Spafford

101 COR. LIBERTY & LEXINGTON STS.,

BALTIMORE, MARYLAND.

GEORGE HERMAN SPAFFORD.

Balts. Nov. 23rd 1889,

Mr. Emory:

Sir:

Received your letter. You write about the mare looking well, which I infer is her general health. When I sent her down, she had a bad sprained ankle and her hock was injured. These injuries I wish particularly to know of. Also in your letter you wrote as though the mare was to return to City in January. You have mixed me up with
