

him at cost for which except my thanks at present He will talk the matter over later on & will keep the poor man home till she finds on account of her temperment will think or send her over to be ordered to Happy Russell. Don't need stand on to mean that I don't want to sell the stud for I do but I think him a very cheap horse at the proper value & would be very glad to sell him & take chance of raising one as good If my financial condition