

Mr. E. B. Emory.
Centerville
Md.

St. Hill Md
6-73-96

Mr. Emory:

My Dear Sir:

I trust you will pardon my seeming neglect for not answering your letter. I didn't get home as soon as I anticipated and have been so very busy since.

I am somewhat disappointed in my corn crop - and don't know what to do with her. I am thinking something of changing her grade. If my old mare isn't in season this time