vs. 17701-2

Edw. B. & H. F. Emory.

Mr. Edward B. Emory,

Centreville, Md.

Dear Sir:-

Mr. J. Frank Harper of Centreville, sometime ago obtained judgment for us in above stated case, and he writes us that this judgment has not yet been paid. Will you kindly let us know by return mail when you can arrange to adjust said judgment. It has been hanging now for sometime and we are anxious to dispose of it. Our client is getting very impatient and is continually after us about this matter. Unless you can arrange to satisfy this judgment at once we will have to issue execution. We hope, however, that you will not make this course necessary. Awaiting your reply, we remain,

Yours truly,

K. R. O. F.
