Edw. B. Emory Esq

Dear Sir

I felt sorry I didn't find you home, however, I transacted all business, promptly, that was necessary, as you left two, very good, substitutes, at home, your good wife, & Mr. Chance, this time I brought you a very fine mare, hard to excel, & when you write to me, please mention her, & rate her highly, on account of Mr. Linton, he will appreciate it, as he thinks so much of her, also take the best of care of her, & see that, Mr. Chance will give her the medicine, I left, for her, promptly as directed, until it's done, I missed the bay filly, of Mr. Gueens, by him not telling me, in his answer to my letter, that he was taking her to Dover, I took the liberty, to write to the Messrs. Hendersons. Bros., & offered them $300, for their Sorrell Colt,
