Dear Sir:-

I have been away for a couple of weeks and find your letter of the 15th here when I got home. I hope you will still have these mares tried regularly for a little while longer as I would not care to have them -go- over the season without getting in foal. I note that you ask for the number of mares I desire to breed to your horse next year and that you will probably raise his service fee to new customers at an early date. I would liked to have had time to run down to look over the stock again and had a further talk with you on this subject, but am too busy now to get away. When I was last at your place you spoke of having made arrangements with a Germantown party to breed five mares for $400 or 6 mares for $500 I forget which and offered to do the same by me.

Please let me know by return mail which offer you will make as I am now about ready for breeding my mares next year some other parties in the business having exceptionally well bred horses are making liberal offers. It is possible that you might be able to get another mare from Coatesville to breed along in Oct. or Nov. in case your horse has not had all the mares this year you want him to cover. The mare I referred to has now a Forrest Wilkes filly by her side. I should be pleased to hear from you at your early con-
