Dear Friend.

No doubt - my letter of recent date was written in such a hand that you could hardly decipher what it was & in fact
this may be almost as bad. but now I will try to make myself plain.
I tried to wish
to send one more
to Russell Lusk
& I have two others
from different
friends of mine.
One is by a local
and the other a true English to Charles Lusk. Now both
both of these other names are known to come at $100 -

each. & I want you to write me & let me know just what I can say those friends of mine. I will be all the conditions & I will in all probability - see
you in Baltimore
this fall.
Hoping to hear from you soon
Yours truly
C. B. Emery
