

all night & would stand the transportation but I doubt if it would be very vigorous after a stay of a month or so at your place.
Happy Russell while a good horse is not a little horse than Chinese & you will simply have to live a few years to see it & that without the aid of glasses. If I did pay 5 times as much for Chinese I don't regret it & feel it to be my business only. The slur at my neighbor was uncalled for & ungentlemanly, & perhaps could be removed if some of your patrons about Chester told the truth last fall. Don't forget that I am under no obligations to you, & have asked for none. As your off letter would imply.

Yours truly
H. A. Dickinson
