

and as to the attention were she were here, it would not compare with your grass which she and the colt would get in your hands. So if you will, would much prefer you doing as you wrote me in one of your former letters, now that she is a foal.

I believe you said you would keep her over and breed her to one of your stallions by a son of Elector, and the brown mare back to Happy Russell. The grey you said would not be of much use to you and that I could take her home, I consider you have done me a very great favor and if I only knew just which you would rather have me do in regard to the grey mare at present ^{I would willingly do it} I do not want her to be any more expense to you than possible, so if you have
