

decided for me to take her now, and keep her until next fall, I will do so, or if you have any use for her, I am perfectly willing for you to keep her.
So do just as you prefer and you will please me. I traded for a stallion the other day, the Billy Cobble horse Belmont², and would stand him for a few mares this season if I had his number and pedigree, I have not Trullace's last issue, and if I am putting you to too much trouble, could I get you to look it up for me? He was sired by Belmont² the sire of Darby, and his first dam Belle the dam of Belmont I think, so if you will look it up for me will be
