

under many obligations to you.
The brown mare I have bred within already and could get several others if I knew his breeding correctly.
Many thanks to you for your kind invitation to visit Poplar Grove, nothing could afford me more pleasure. I am making every effort to influence some of my friends to send their names to happy Russell, but on account of the hard times, they can not get courage enough. With kind regards to yourself and family I am Yours truly
Jm. S. Hitch