Centreville, Md., 1894.

M

I am now prepared to offer you bargains and save you money. I have one of the most complete stock of Merchandise that was ever offered to the people of this vicinity, and at prices that defy all competition. My stock consists of Dry Goods, Notions, Gents' Furnishings, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Mattings and Rugs, Queensware and Groceries. Everything is entirely new and of the latest style. My Dress and Trimming Department is complete and of the best. My Shoes cannot be surpassed. I have purchased from first-class manufacturers a complete stock of Ladies', Misses', Men's and Boys' Hand-Made and Factory-Made Shoes, which are guaranteed to give satisfaction in fit, style and durability. Do not forget the Glass Front, Main Street, Centreville, has been entirely cleared out, and everything I offer you is new and purchased at prices that will enable you to secure the best goods at honest prices. Come and see me and be convinced.

Yours Respectfully,

L. W. Collins.
