Mr E. P. Emory

Dear Sir

I have not heard from the Cohan Lyon crowd yet—

I enclose another letter about Victor — which I answered saying any terms he made with you will be all O.K. & I did not name any price, as I want to sell the tore quickly, and will rely on you as to what he is worth rather what you can get. Expect to see Cohal this P.M. and will write you if he can & make up a race — he has several that can step
