

Could take hold. Write it - would go better But they can't see much to do (you are how this year I will start to train again on Saturday with two of my Runners to run the maiden Race the Show and a half in 4 days and if they Run that good then they will get a piece of the money I will show Bedworth kept work when he stops at any stable with Eyes or too rough front & four hand I think that is the way you said you worked him he is making a very fine season in the stud The groom told me he would run about 6 or more and that is plenty my sister is doing very well and I dressed the lugger horse and now I can drive him any mile with out lugging and you Very much faster he puts me much in mind of antian he is scared by cabash. how is Lillian going and the little Sorrel filly now both have you some Boulder in training now is dan still with you yet and what is for if you down I suppose I could get you to help to take care of my Horses please see him for me and oblige me Yours God truly Thomas & Nell many thanks for your instructions in your last letter good night
