Mr. Camant until last Monday March 16th. I will send her to your place a short time before she foals. Will pay you for all I get and dont want any commission from you or any one else. All I want is a Colt. You will observe by the heading of this. What the nature of my business is. And if you are not a Temperance man and have any hotels in your vicinity and will use your influence towards my selling them some goods I will be very much obliged. And if you use any thing in my line I will be pleased to furnish it. And as to your corresponding for the past year so much I am certain it was not with me. As I have just received three letters from you

Yours Truly

Silas Wright

P.S. If you have written Mr. Camant, that I claim a commission on his sending mare I wish you to rectify it at once
