My dear Sir:

Thanks for your kind letter of June 23rd. I need hardly tell you how gladly I would be with you on the 4th of July to witness the performances of the Happy Russell gearling, but I fear it will be only of my power to do so. I expect to leave here on the 2nd or 3rd of July to be absent for some days. My friend Harry Brooks expects to be with you and I must warn you in time to watch him carefully and say but little about Happy Russell and his progeny in his presence as his mind is a little unhinged on that subject already. For weeks after his last visit to you
