Mr. Emory;

My Dear Sir;

I have just rec'd
a letter from my Father,
enclosing yours concerning the breeding of my mare. I kept quiet after I wrote you in the fall, as I was waiting to see the mare,
and see if I thought
she was with foal;
I did see her Xmas
and while I think probably she may be yet
I am not at all certain, as I never saw
her under those circumstances, and of course can't tell, as she was then not showing it

enough to be at all positive. Before I bought the mare, you told me that you and my Father had about made
arrangements for him
to breed his mare to Russell, and he was to give me the colt, should I be that fortunate;
I understood you to say,
that I would then
have a new standard
colt, and that I had bought <sup>buy</sup> this mare, and bred her instead of my Father's. I thought by that, that she was
